

RAF Menwith Hill 25 May 2023

RAF Menwith Hill with its large golf ball-like domes sits on the A59 between Harrogate and Skipton. The base deals with intelligence and communication services.

The visit provided an insight to the current and future operation of the base as well as the opportunity to see inside and inspect close-up the inside of a radome.